SINGLES

➧ RON DANTE/HOW AM I TO KNOW
written by ron dante &
phillip nameanworth
produced by ron dante
rca records (PB-10898)

Ron Dante's most recent single, "How Am I To Know", brings the performer back into the lime-light after a too long an absence. A mellow love song, "How Am I To Know" sounds different enough to make it worth while to listen to, yet enough like everything else on the radio today to make it a hit. If the voice sounds familiar, it's because Dante used to be the voice that made the cartoon Archies famous. Ron Dante is back, and the music sounds better than ever. g.o.b.

➧ JENNIFER WARNES/RIGHT TIME OF THE NIGHT
written by pete mccarin produced by jim ed norman arista records (0223)

Jennifer Warnes is a bright new talent with great potential. Ms. Warnes' singing is fresh and vibrant, her voice is strong and lusty, and the production is crisp. "Right Time Of The Night" is a sweetly melencholy ballad of resignation to the inevitable on a starry, sultry, summer night. Now is the right time, for Jennifer Warnes. b.f.

SINGLES CONT.

➔ GLEN CAMPBELL/SOUTHERN NIGHTS
written by alan tousaint
capitol records (4376)

"Southern Nights" is not typical Glen Campbell. It's an up-tempo, happy song about life in the south. The song moves well, highlighted by smooth-flowing harmonies and a sweet sounding instrumental accompaniment. The rhinestone cowboy's voice comes across clear and strong, reminiscent of his "Wicheta Lineman"-days. As an added bonus, the flip-side features Campbell fast-picking his way through the "William Tell Overture". And we didn't even get a chance to thank him before he rode off into the sunset... g.o'b.

➔ MR. BIG/ROMEO
written by dicken and edward carter produced by val garay
arista records (AS-0229)

I'd never heard of Mr. Big. Chances are, you hadn't either. This record may change that. With "Romeo", Mr. Big cashes in on the current trend towards "suggestive" lyrics. The musical accompniment is palatable, and the harmonies blend well with the lead. "Romeo" is well worth listening to, and if hadn't recieved a free copy, I probably would have gone out and bought one. g.o'b.
